Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Virgin Islands Member Discount Program Policy

September 2013

General Policy Statement

Any arrangements, services or products purchased with this discount program are the sole responsibility of the individual member. The GERS assumes no obligation for these arrangements. All arrangements are strictly between the member, as a consumer, and the service provider.

Members should shop and compare prices and services before purchasing, signing any contract, or making any arrangements. The GERS Member Discount Program assumes no responsibility for any arrangements, contracts, purchases, or disputes between individual employees and any discount provider. The GERS Member Discount Program does not negotiate or guarantee discount prices and suggests each member research and compare prices, levels of service, and any licensing or certification requirements, as should be done before agreeing to any arrangement, contract, or purchase.

Program eligibility requirements have been set by the Government Employees' Retirement System and include all members. Members must provide proof of program membership by showing their VI Government ID or GERS Member Discount Card, as required. Members must contact the discount provider for any specific questions or concerns and for all customer service functions.

A business may not disclaim knowledge of, or responsibility for, the authenticity or legality of the products or services offered.

The GERS website will be a central point for presenting all discount offers to members. At any time and for any reason the GERS Member Discount Program reserves the right to remove or modify any content on its Website.

The GERS Member Discount Program reserves the right to revoke, deny, or disapprove any existing business, based on the Discount Program policy or for any other business reason. All businesses participating in the discount program agree to comply with all conditions set forth in this policy and any subsequent revisions.
